

One Day Visit

Maui: Second large Island of Hawaii.
728 square miles.
Population: about 160,000
Temperature: F 75-90 degree.

Iao Valley State Park

Located in Central Maui just west of Wailuku, this peaceful 4,000-acre, 10-mile long park is home to one of Maui's most recognizable landmarks, the 1,200-foot Iao Needle. This iconic green-mantled rock outcropping overlooks Iao stream and is an ideal attraction for easy hiking and sightseeing.

Aside from its natural tropical beautiful, sacred Iao Valley has great historical significance. It was here in 1790 at the Battle of Kepaniwai that King Kamehameha I clashed with Maui's army in his quest to unite the islands. Even with Iao Needle serving as a lookout point, Kamehameha defeated Maui's forces in a ferocious battle that ultimately changed the course of Hawaiian history.

D.T. Fleming Beach (America's Best Beach 2006)

Fleming Beach is located in Kapalua just east of Slaughterhouse Beach and Mokule'ia Bay. The beach is named after D.T. Fleming, the man who introduced pineapple to West Maui. Fleming Beach is staffed with lifeguards and shares facilities with D.T. Fleming Park, including: a parking lot, picnic tables, grills, restrooms, outdoor showers, wheelchair ramps, pay phones, lifeguard offices, a comfort station, and water taps. The beach is frequented by both locals and tourists and is popular with surfers and bodyboarders because of its large winter swells. It also serves as the main beach front for the Ritz-Carlton, Kapalua.

Kapalua (The Hawaiian name was Honokahua.)

America's best beach 1991

A resort development by the Maui Land & Pineapple Company extends inland from Kapalua Bay and Honolua Bay.

The property has earned the rare Five Diamond designation from AAA, and consistently wins tip-top honors from the likes of Condé Nast Traveler and Travel + Leisure.

Kapalua has a view of the islands of Moloka'i and Lāna'i.

The area has several beaches. The name kapa lua means "two borders" in the Hawaiian language. Kapalua Bay was named "Best Beach in the World" by the readers of Condé Nast Traveler magazine, "America's Best Beach" on the first annual list of Stephen Leatherman's Top 10 Beaches in America, and the "Best Beach in America" by the Travel Channel, among other honors.

Kaanapali (America's Best Beach 2003.)

Fronting Kaanapali's hotels and resorts, this former retreat for the royalty of Maui is now a popular getaway for the world.

Kaanapali was Hawaii's first planned resort and has become a model for resorts around the globe. Five hotels and six condominium villages face this renowned beach. Also fronting Kaanapali is the open air Whalers Village, a world-class shopping complex that features a variety of exceptional shops and restaurants. Kaanapali also has two championship golf courses, the Royal Kaanapali and the Kaanapali Kai, where you may even see a breaching whale as you try to line up a shot.

Lahaina Town

One of Hawaii's most historic towns is also one of the most eclectic... and it is most certainly uniquely Maui.

A few of the many sights in Lahaina include the gigantic banyan tree which literally takes up an entire city block, the historic Baldwin House, the old courthouse.

Lahaina also has a well-earned reputation as an artsy town, and a wide variety of art galleries line the streets, offering something for every type of collector.

Lahaina is best known for its rich history as a whaling port but has also played a key role in the development of the island's sugar and pineapple industries. These activities also attracted large numbers of immigrants whose varied backgrounds and cultures made- and continue to make- Lahaina a place of rich traditions. The town even served as the capital of the Hawaiian Kingdom in the early 19th century. Lahaina is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and its walkable downtown is home to many unique locations.

Charge: 100USD Per Person

Online Payment linkage

<http://meeting.yizhifubj.com.cn/web/main.action?meetingId=188>

* VISA /Master/American Express/ JCB card valid. No handling fees, please calculate the amount and pay.

Please fill your E-mail address used for payment and Confirmation Number you received after paying.

E-mail:	Confirmation Number:
---------	----------------------